Camping, Caravans and Cruisers at Regatta

To get the best out of regatta why not stay down in either a tent or caravan. Previous experience has shown that sleeping on cruisers may be fraught with danger (people walking into town trying to find their boat or falling into the water, although this does dramatically sober you up). Please note we will try to segregate the junior in tents from some of our more geriatric sailors in tents. Complete the attached form if you want to camp.
